WHereas the Terme of S. 8. R. 2.

The like charter to Tinners in Cornewall.

And whereas the ſaid King Edward the firſt made the like Charter to the Tinners in the County of Cornewall, which Charter was in the foreſaid Parliament upon the requeſt of the Commons of the County of Cornewall declared in the ſame manner and words.

Declaration.

And whereas the Tinners of the Counties of Devon and Cornewall have by vertue of the ſaid Charters enjoyed divers and great Liberties, and are quit from all Tolls, Tollages, Aids, and other cuſtomes in the Villes, Ports, Fairs, and Markets within the ſaid Counties reſpectively: Which great Liberties do of right belong to the working Tinner, working without fraud or deceit in the Stannaries aforeſaid, and not to any other nor elſewhere working, and were granted to the ſaid Tinners for their encouragement in their works: And whereas of late years ſundry Inhabitants within the ſaid Counties, and others, to entitle themſelves to the ſaid Liberties, have by fraud and covin, for ſmall or no conſiderations, bought and acquired, and do buy and acquire to themſelves decayed Tinneworks, and ſmall and inconſiderable parts in the ſame and other Tinne-works; which abuſes are done principally to inable the ſaid falſe and fained Tinners, to vex and ſue their Neighbours in the Stannary Courts, where for the moſt part the Defendant is unjuſtly debarred his coſts, although the cauſe be adjudged with him, and the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Stannaries hath, contrary to ancient right and uſage, and the ſaid Charters, been endeavoured to be extended out of the places where the Tinners do work, through the whole Counties of Devon and Cornewall reſpectively, which is no way for the benefit of his Majeſty, but for the ſingular lucre of ſome private perſons: And whereas by the ſaid abuſes great inconveniences do follow, (That is to ſay) the Inhabitants of the ſaid Counties are miſerably vexed, oppreſſed, and impriſoned, His Majeſty defrauded of His Aids and Cuſtomes, and the Lords and owners of Fairs, Markets, and other Franchiſes of their Tolls and Duties, and the government of the Country exceedingly confounded and eluded, the ſaid falſe and fained Tinners claiming when they liſt to be Tinners, and when they liſt to be forreigners; beſides that if timely proviſion be not made, the certain decay of his Majeſties profit in the Tinne-works will enſue, for that the ſame being divided into ſo many hands and parts cannot conveniently be ſet on work, nor contribution raiſed for the working the ſame:

Abuſe of liberties.

The former Declarations confirmed.

Be it therefore enacted by his Majeſty, and the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the ſaid Declarations be henceforth held and duly obſerved with this, that the words of the ſaid Charters and Declarations, In locis ubi operantur, be expounded of the Vill, Tithing, and Hamlet, where ſome Tinnework in work is ſcituate, and not elſewhere, and no longer then the ſame Tinnework is or ſhall be in working. And if any perſon or perſons that ſhall be ſued in the ſaid Stannaries, ſhall ſwear, or tender his or their oath in the ſaid Court where he or they ſhall be ſued, that he or they are not, nor is, nor time of the Suit commenced was not, nor were a Tinner or Tinners, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall be forthwith diſcharged of ſuch Suit, unleſſe that the Plaintiffe or Plaintiffs do forthwith make oath that the ſaid Plaintiffe or Plaintiffs, is or are true and working Tinners, without fraud or deceit: and that the cauſe of his or their Suit aroſe within the ſaid Stannaries, or concerneth Tinne or Tinne-works. And if any perſon being not re vera, and without fraud, a working and labouring Tinner, in or about ſome Tinne-work, ſet on work within one half year next before his Suit, ſhall ſue, proſecute, or implead in any the ſaid Courts, or before the Warden, Vice-Warden, or Steward of the ſaid Stannaries, any Perſon or Perſons that is or are not a Tinner or Tinners at the time of ſuch Suit commenced, Then the Defendant and Defendants in every ſuch caſe, ſhall have his and their action at the common law, againſt ſuch perſon ſuing or proſecuting, wherein he ſhall recover ten pounds, and his dammages and coſts of Suit; Provided that ſuch Action be brought within two years next after the Action or Suit brought in the ſaid Stannary Courts, or before the ſaid Warden, Vice-Warden, or Steward.

In locis ubi operantur, how expounded.

None but tinners to be ſued, unleſs by working tinners.

Perſons ſued by others ſhall have their action.

Such action to be brought within two years.

Coſts in Stannary courts.

And be it declared and enacted, That in all caſes where the Plaintiffe or Defendant, Plaintiffs or Defendants, are to have coſts by the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, there alſo the Plaintiffs and Defendants ſhall have the like coſts in the Stannary Courts. And in regard that the ſaid Charters were granted for the eaſe and advantage of the Tinners, and not for their diſadvantage or oppreſſion, and yet divers of them who for ſpecial reaſons have deſired to ſue at the common Law, have been reſtrained;

Tinner may ſue forreiners at the common law.

Be it declared and enacted, That it ſhall be lawfull to and for the ſaid Tinners, if they think fit, to ſue any Forreigners at the common law; the ſaid Charter, or any uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Abuſes of poor bayliffs in the ſtannaries.

And whereas the Bailiffs of the ſaid Stannary Courts are very numerous, and are perſons of ſmall or no credit, and yet upon their return that any perſon is become ſurety for any other upon Arreſt by Proceſs out of the ſaid Courts, ſuch perſon who ſometimes knowes nothing of the matter, is by falſe Returnes of the ſaid Bayliffs made liable to the debt or demand, which Bayliffs, by reaſon of their poverty, are often not reſponſible, and ſo the party without remedy:

How ſureties may be ſued.

Be it enacted, that no perſon or perſons be charged or troubled as ſurety by any Return of any Bailiffe or Bailiffs of the ſaid Stannaries, unleſs that the perſon or perſons returned Surety or Sureties, ſhall in the preſence of two witneſſes ſubſcribe or ſign a note in writing, that ſuch perſon or perſons is or are become Surety or Sureties; which note ſhall mention the names of the Plaintiffs and Defendants in the Suit, and the ſum or dammages in demand, and the nature of the Action, and ſhall be ſigned or ſubſcribed by the ſaid witneſſes, and returned and filed in the Court out of which ſuch Proceſs ſhall iſſue, and no Bailiffe or Bailiffs of the ſaid Stannaries ſhall be admitted as witneſſes to any ſuch note.

And whereas in the ſaid Stannaries it is uſed, that if the Bailiffs return any perſon arreſted, that if ſuch perſon make default at the day, he ſhall be condemned, and Execution is ſuddenly awarded, when as often the party was not arreſted:

No Defendant ſhall be condemned on a bailiffs return unleſs on a note ſubſcribed by the party.

Be it further enacted, That no Defendant ſhall be condemned upon ſuch Return for not appearing, unleſs alſo a note under the Hand or Signe of the party Arreſted, and ſubſcribed by two ſuch witneſſes, as aforeſaid, be returned into the ſaid Court, at or before the day of appearance; and the ſaid Bailiffe or Bailiffs ſhall take but four pence for every ſuch note as aforeſaid; and it is provided, that none ſhall be bailed upon arreſt there till he give ſuch note.

Bayle.

Reſcous.

And in caſe any the ſaid Bailiffe or Bailiffs ſhall return a Reſcous againſt any Perſon or Perſons, he or they ſhall be admitted to traverſe the ſaid Return; which Traverſe, if it be found with him or them ſo traverſing, then he or they ſhall be no further troubled or occaſioned by reaſon of ſuch return.

CAP. XVI.

For the certainty of the Meets, and Bounds of the Forreſts.

St. 1. E. 3.

WHereas by Act of Parliament made in the firſt year of the reign of the late King EDWARD the Third, it is ordained, that the old Perambulation of the Forreſt in the time of King Edward the Firſt, ſhould be thenceforth holden in like form as it was then ridden and bounded, and in ſuch places where it was not bounded, the King would that it ſhould be bounded by good men and lawfull:

And whereas for many ages paſt certain Meets, Meers, Limits, and Bounds of the Forreſts, have been commonly known and obſerved in the ſeverall Counties wherein the ſaid Forreſts lye:

And whereas of late divers Preſentments have been made, and ſome Judgements given, whereby the Meets, Meers, limits, and Bounds of ſome of the ſaid Forreſts have been variouſly extended, or pretended to extend beyond ſome of the ſaid Meets, Meers, limits, and Bounds ſo commonly known, and formerly obſerved, to the great grievance and Vexation of many Perſons having lands adjoyning to the ſaid Meets, Meers, limits, and Bounds ſo commonly known, and formerly obſerved: And whereas of late time ſome Endeavours or Pretences have been to ſet on foot Forreſts in ſome parts of this Realm, and the Dominion of Wales, where in truth none have been nor ought to be, or at leaſt have not been uſed of long time: For remedy thereof, may it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it be Declared and Enacted by Authority of Parliament:

What ſhall be the Meets and bounds of forreſts.

And be it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from henceforth the Meets, Meers, Limits, and Bounds of all and every the Forreſts reſpectively, ſhall be to all intents and purpoſes, taken, adjudged, and deemed to extend no further reſpectively, then the Meets, Meers, Limits, and Bounds which in the ſeverall Counties reſpectively, wherein the ſaid Forreſts do lye, were commonly known, reputed, uſed, or taken to be the Meets, Meers, Limits, and Bounds of the ſaid Forreſts reſpectively, in the twentieth year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King JAMES, and not beyond in any wiſe, any Perambulation or Perambulations, Preſentments, Extents, Surveys, Judgments, Records, Decrees, or other matter or thing whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding: And that all and every the Preſentments ſince the ſaid twentieth year made, and that all and every other Preſentment and Preſentments, and all and every Judgment and award upon, or by reaſon or pretext of any ſuch Preſentment or Preſentments, and all and every Perambulation, and Perambulations, Surveys, Extents, and other Act and Acts, at any time heretofore had or made, by which the Meets, Meers, Limits or Bounds of the ſaid Forreſts, or any of them, are, or are pretended to be further extended then as aforeſaid: And alſo all and every Preſentment of any perſon or perſons at any Juſtice ſeat, Swainemote, or Court of Attachments, for or by reaſon, or by colour of any Act or Acts whatſoever done or committed in any place without, or beyond the ſaid Meets, Meers, Limits or Bounds reſpectively, ſo commonly known, reputed, uſed, or taken as aforeſaid, and all and every Fine and Fines, and amercement and amercements

ments, upon, by reaſon or colour of any ſuch Preſentment or Preſentments, ſhall from henceforth be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be utterly void, and of no force or effect, any Law, Statute, Record, or pretence whatſoever, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no place or places within this Realm of England, or Dominion of Wales, where no ſuch Juſtice ſeat, Swainemote, or Court of Attachment have been held, or kept, or where no Verderers have been choſen, or regard made within the ſpace of ſixty years next before the firſt year of his Majeſties Reign that now is, ſhall be at any time hereafter judged, deemed, or taken to be Foreſt, or within the bounds or meets of the Foreſts; But the ſame ſhall be from henceforth for ever hereafter Diſafforeſted, and freed, and exempted from the Foreſts Laws; Any Juſtice ſeat, Swainemote, or Court of Attachment held or kept within, or for any ſuch place or places, at any time or times ſince the beginning of His Majeſties ſaid Reign, or any preſentment, enquiry, Act, or thing heretofore made or hereafter to be made or done to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No place where no Juſtice ſeat, Swainemote court or attachment &c. hath been within 60. years, ſhall be accompted foreſt.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that for the better putting into certainty, all and every the Meets, Meers, Bounds, and Limits of all and every the Foreſts, as aforeſaid, The Lord Chancellour, or Lord Keeper of the great Seal of England for the time being, ſhall by vertue of this Act upon requeſt of any of the Peers of this Kingdom, or of the Knights and Burgeſſes of the Parliament, or any of them, grant ſeverall Commiſſions under the great Seal of England, to Commiſſioners to be nominated reſpectively by the ſaid Peers, Knights, and Burgeſſes, or any of them, to enquire of, and find out by Inqueſts of good and lawfull men upon Oath, and by the oaths of Witneſſes to be produced at the ſaid Inqueſts, and by all other lawfull means, all, and every the Meers, Meets, Bounds and Limits of the Foreſts reſpectively, which were commonly known to be their Meers, Meets, Bounds, and limits reſpectively, in the ſaid twentieth year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King James; And to return the Inqueſts ſo taken into the Court of Chancery; and that all and every the Sheriffs, and Bailiffs, of, and in every County wherein any ſuch Inqueſts ſhall be ſo to be taken; And all and every the Verderers, Foreſters, Rangers, and other Officers of the Foreſts reſpectively where any ſuch Officers be, ſhall be aſſiſtant, and attendant to the execution of the ſaid Commiſſions, according as by vertue of the ſaid Commiſſions reſpectively they ſhall be commanded; And where no ſuch Officers are, or where ſuch Officers be, if they, or any of them ſhall refuſe, or neglect ſuch aſſiſtance, and attendance as aforeſaid, Then the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and may, proceed without them in the execution of the ſaid Commiſſions.

For aſcertaining of meets, &c. commiſſions ſhall be iſſued.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Foreſts whereof the Meets, Meers, limits and Bounds be ſo returned, and certified by vertue of any the ſaid Commiſſions as aforeſaid, from thenceforth ſhall not extend, nor be extended, nor be deemed, adjudged, or taken to extend any further in any wiſe then the Meets, Meers, limits, and bounds that ſhall be ſo returned, and certified: And that all the places, and Territories that ſhall be without the Meets, Meers, Limits and Bounds ſo returned and certified, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be from thenceforth free to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame had never been Foreſt, or ſo reputed; Any Act or Acts, matter, or thing whatſoever, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Foreſts ſhall not extend beyond the meets, &c. ſo returned.

Provided, and be it further enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the grounds, Territories, or places which have been, or are Deafforeſted, or mentioned to be Deafforeſted, in, or by any Letters Patents, Charters, or otherwiſe, ſince the ſaid twentieth year of the Raign of our ſaid late Soveraign Lord King James, ſhall be excluded, and left out of the Meets, Meers, Limits, and Bounds of the Foreſts, which are to be enquired of, returned, and certified by vertue of the ſaid Commiſſions, or any of them reſpectively: And ſhall be, and hereby are declared and enacted to be utterly Deafforeſted, free, and exempt to all intents, and purpoſes, as if the ſame had never been at all Foreſt, or ſo reputed: Any thing in this preſent Act contained, or any other Act, matter, or thing whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Grounds deafforeſted ſhall be excluded.

Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That the Tenants, Owners, and Occupiers, and every of them, of Lands, and Tenements which ſhall be excluded, and left out of the Meets, Meers, Limits, or Bounds of the Foreſts to be returned, and certified by vertue of any the ſaid Commiſſions, ſhall, or may uſe, and enjoy ſuch Common, and other profits, and eaſements within the Foreſt, as anciently, or accuſtomably they have uſed, and enjoyed: Any thing in this preſent Act contained, or any Act or Ordinance made in the three and thirtieth year of King Edward the firſt, or any Cuſtome, or Law of the Foreſt, or any other matter, or thing, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

CAP. XX.

None ſhall be compelled to take the Order of Knighthood.

Writs iſſued for perſons to take the order of Knighthood.

Whereas upon the pretext of an ancient cuſtom, or uſage of this Realm of England, That Men of full age, being not Knights, and being ſeiſed of Lands or Rents, of the yearly value of fourty pounds, or more (eſpecially if their ſeiſing had ſo continued by the ſpace of three years next paſt) might be compelled by the Kings Writ, to receive or take upon them the order or dignity of Knighthood, or elſe to make Fine for the diſcharge or reſpite of the ſame; Several Writs about the beginning of his Majeſties reign iſſued out of the Court of Chancery, for Proclamations to be made in every County to that purpoſe, and for certifying the names of all ſuch perſons, and for ſummoning them perſonally to appear in the Kings preſence before a certain day, to be there ready to receive the ſaid Order or Dignity: Upon return of which Writs, and tranſmitting the ſame with their Returns into the court of Exchequer, and upon other Writs for further inquiry of the names of ſuch perſons iſſuing out of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, Proceſſe by Diſtringas was thence made againſt a very great number of perſons, many of which were altogether unfit, in regard either of Eſtate or quality, quality, to receive the ſaid Order or Dignity, and very many were put to grievous Fines and other vexations for the ſame, although in truth it were not ſufficiently known how, or in what ſort, or where they, or any of them ſhould, or might have addreſſed themſelves for the receiving the ſaid Order or Dignity, and for ſaving themſelves thereby from the ſaid Fines, Proceſs, and vexations: And whereas it is moſt apparant that all and every ſuch proceeding, in regard of the matter therein pretended, is altogether uſeleſs and unreaſonable; May it therefore pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it be by authority of Parliament declared and enacted.

No perſon ſhall be compelled to take on him the order of Knighthood, nor undergo any fine for the cauſe.

And be it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, and the Lords and Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from henceforth no perſon or perſons, of what condition, quality, eſtate, or degree ſoever, ſhall at any time be diſtrained, or otherwayes compelled by any Writ or Proceſs of the Court of Chancery, or Court of Exchequer, or otherwiſe by any means whatſoever, to receive or take upon him or them reſpectively, the Order of Dignity of Knighthood, nor ſhall ſuffer or undergo any Fine, Trouble or Moleſtation whatſoever, by reaſon or colour of his or their having not received, or not taken upon him or them the ſaid Order or Dignity: And that all and every writ or Proceſſe whatſoever, and all and every proceeding which ſhall hereafter be had or made contrary to the intent of this Act, ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly void: And that all and every proceſs proceeding, and charge now depending by reaſon or colour of the ſaid pretended cuſtome, or Writs aforeſaid, or of any the Dependants thereof, ſhall from henceforth ceaſe and ſtand, be and remain diſcharged and utterly void; Any former Law or Cuſtome, or any pretence of any former Law or Cuſtome, or any other matter whatſoever, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. CAP. XXI.

Liberty for bringing in of Gun-powder and Salt-peter from Forraign parts, and for the free making of Gunpowder in this Realm.

Miſchiefs by prohibiting importation of gun-powder.

Whereas the Importation of Gun-powder from foreign parts hath of late times been againſt Law prohibited, and the making thereof within this Realm ingroſſed, whereby the price of Gun-powder hath been exceſſively raiſed, many powder works decayed, this Kingdom very much weakened and indangered, the Merchants thereof much damnified, many Mariners and others taken priſoners, and brought into miſerable Captivity and Slavery, many Ships taken by Turkiſh and other Pyrates, and many other inconveniences have from thence inſued, and more are likely to enſue if they be not timely prevented:

Liberty to all to import gun-powder.

Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawfull, to and for all and ſingular perſons, as well Strangers as naturall born Subjects of this Realm, to import and bring into this Kingdom any quantities of Gun-powder whatſoever, paying ſuch cuſtomes and duties for the ſame, as by authority of Parliament ſhall be limited and ſet down.

All Subjects may make and ſell gun powder, and import ſalt-peter.

And be it further declared, and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawfull, to and for all and ſingular His Majeſties Subjects of this His Realm of England, to make and ſell any quantities of Gun-powder, at his and their will and pleaſure, and alſo to bring into this Kingdom any quantities of Salt-peter, brimſtone, or any other materials neceſſary or requiſite for the making of Gun-powder.

Penalty for putting in execution letters patents, proclamations, &c. againſt this liberty.

And laſtly, be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, from and after the tenth day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God one thouſand ſix hundred fourty and one, ſhall put in execution any Letters Patents, Proclamation, Edict, Act, Order, Warrant, Reſtraint, or other Inhibition whatſoever, whereby the Importation of Gun-powder, Salt-peter, brimſtone, or other the materials aforementioned, or any of them, from Forraign parts, or the making of Gun-powder within this Realm, ſhall be any way prohibited or reſtrained, That then the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo offending ſhall incur and ſuſtain the pains, penalties and forfeitures contained and provided in the Statute of proviſion and premunire made in the ſixteenth year of King Richard the ſecond.

For the ſpeedy and effectual reducing of the Rebels in Ireland.

Whereas the Lords and Commons, taking into their ſerious conſiderations, as well the neceſſity of a ſpeedy reducing of the Rebels of Ireland to their due obedience, as alſo the great ſums of Money that the Commons of this Realm have of late paid for the publick and neceſſary affairs of this Kingdom, whereof the Lords and Commons are very ſenſible, and deſirous to embrace all good and honourable wayes, tending to his Majeſties greatneſs and profit, the ſetling of that Realm, and the eaſe of his Majeſties Subjects in England;

The Reaſons of this Act.

And whereas divers worthy and well-affected perſons, perceiving that many Millions of Acres of the Rebels Lands of that Kingdom, which go under the name of profitable Lands, will be confiſcate, and to be diſpoſed of; And that in caſe two Millions and a half of thoſe Acres to be equally taken out of the four Provinces of that Kingdom, may be allotted for the ſatisfaction of ſuch perſons as ſhall diſburſe any ſums of Money for the reducing of the Rebels there, would effectually accompliſh the ſame, have made theſe Propoſitions enſuing (viz.)

Many Millions of Acres of Land of the Rebels to be confiſcate.

I. That two Millions and an half of thoſe Acres may be aſſigned, allotted and divided amongſt them after this proportion, (viz.) one thouſand Acres in Leinſter; All according to the Engliſh meaſure, and conſiſting of Meadow, Arable, and profitable Paſture, the Bogs, Woods, and barren Mountains being caſt in over and above theſe two Millions and a half of Acres, to be holden in free and common Soccage of the King, as of his Caſtle of Dublin.

Rent reſerved to the Crown.

II. That out of this two Millions and a half of Acres, a conſtant yearly Rent ſhall be reſerved to the Crown of England, after this proportion, (viz.) out of each Acre thereof in Ulſter, one penny; Out of each Acre in Conaght, three half pence; Out of each Acre in Munſter, two pence farthing; And out of each Acre in Leinſter, three pence; whereby His Majeſties Revenue out of thoſe Lands will be much improved, beſides the advantages that He will have by the coming to His hands of all other the Lands of the Rebels, and their perſonal Eſtates, without any charge unto his Majeſty.

Commiſſions for erecting Manors, &c.

III. That for the erecting of Manors, ſetling of Waſtes, and Commons, maintaining of preaching Miniſters, creating of Corporations, and Regulating of the ſeveral Plantations, one, or more Commiſſions be hereafter granted by Authority of Parliament.

Undertakers to ſubſcribe.

IV. That Moneys for this great occaſion may be the more ſpeedily advanced, All the Undertakers in the city of London, and within twenty miles diſtant thereof, ſhall underwrite their ſeveral ſums before the twentieth day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred fourty one, and all within ſixty miles of London, before the firſt day of April, one thouſand ſix hundred fourty two; and the reſt of the Kingdom before the firſt day of May, one thouſand ſix hundred fourty two.

Sums underwritten to whom to be paid.

V. That the ſeveral ſums to be underwritten ſhall be paid in at four paiments, (viz.) One fourth part within ten dayes after ſuch underwriting, and the other three parts at three Moneths, and three Moneths, all to be paid into the Chamber of London.

A twentieth part to be paid down.

VI. That for the better ſecuring of the ſaid ſeveral ſums accordingly, every one that doth ſo underwrite, ſhall at the time of his Subſcription pay down the twentieth part of the total ſum that ſhall be by them underwritten. And in caſe that the reſidue of his fourth part be not paid in to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be appointed to receive the ſame within the ten dayes before limited, then ſuch party ſhall not only forfeit the twentieth part of the ſum total formerly depoſited, but ſo much more of his firſt fourth payment to be added thereunto, as ſhall make up the one Moyety of the ſaid firſt payment. And if the ſaid perſon ſhall fail in any other of the three payments, he ſhall then forfeit his entire firſt fourth part, and all the benefit of his Subſcriptoin, which forfeiture ſhall accrue to the common benefit of the reſt of the Underwriters.

Propoſitions allowed by the Parliament.

And whereas aſwell our Soveraign Lord the King, as the Lords and Commons have approved of the ſaid Propoſitions, and aſſented that the ſaid Propoſitions, and all other things neceſſarily conducing thereunto, ſhall be ratified and confirmed by authority of Parliament:

All perſons, Engliſh, Scottiſh, Iriſh, Dutch, being Proteſtan's may ſubſcribe.

CAP. XIII.

None ſhall take above ſix pounds for the loan of an hundred pounds for a year.

Abatement of intereſt advantageous to trade.

FOraſmuch as the Abatement of Intereſt from Ten in the Hundred in former times, hath been found by notable experience Beneficial to the Advancement of Trade, and Improvement of Lands by good Husbandry, with many other conſiderable advantages to this Nation, eſpecially the reducing of it to a nearer Proportion with Forreign States with whom We Traffique. And whereas in freſh memory the like fall from Eight to ſix in the Hundred, by a late conſtant practiſe hath found the like Succeſs to the general contentment of this Nation, as is viſible by ſeveral Improvements. And whereas it is the endeavour of ſome at preſent to reduce it back again in practiſe to the allowance of the Statute, ſtill in force, to Eight in the Hundred, to the great diſcouragement of Ingenuity and induſtry in the Husbandry, Trade, and Commerce of this Nation.

And that all and every perſon or perſons whatſoever, which ſhall after the time aforeſaid, upon any Contract to be made, after the ſaid twenty ninth day of September, take, accept and receive, by way or means of any corrupt Bargain, Loane, Exchange, Cheiveſaunce, Shift, or Intereſt of any Wares, Merchandiſe, or other thing or things whatſoever, or by any deceitful way or means, or by any covin, engine, or deceitful conveyance for the forbearing or giving day of payment for one whole year, of and for their Money, or other thing, above the Sum of Six pounds for the forbearing of One hundred pounds for a year, and ſo after that Rate for a greater or leſſer Sum, or for a longer or ſhorter Term, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch offence, the treble value of the Moneys, Wares, Merchandiſe, and other things ſo Lent, Bargained, Sold, Exchanged, or Shifted.

The wonderful power and goodneſs of God in the Reſtauration of his Majeſty.

The unanimous and cordial affection of the Lords and Commons in Parliament, and people in general.

The intent of keeping the ſaid day.

FOraſmuch as Almighty God the King of Kings, and ſole Diſpoſer of all Earthly Crowns and Kingdomes, hath by his All-ſwaying Providence and Power miraculouſly demonſtrated in the view of all the World, his tranſcendent Mercy, Love and Graciouſneſſe, towards His moſt Excellent Majeſty, CHARLES the ſecond, by his Eſpecial Grace, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland King, Defender of the true Faith, and all his Majeſties Loyal Subjects of this his Kingdom of England, and the Dominions thereunto annexed, by his Majeſties late moſt wonderful, glorious, peaceable and joyful Reſtoration to the actual poſſeſſion and exerciſe of his undoubted hereditary Soveraign and Regal Authority over them (after ſundry years forced extermination into Forreign parts, by the moſt Trayterous Conſpiracies, and armed power of uſurping Tyrants, and execrable perfidious Traytors) and that without the leaſt oppoſition, or effuſion of blood, through the unanimous, cordial, Loyal Votes of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and paſſionate deſires of all other his Majeſties Subjects which unexpreſſible bleſſing (by Gods own moſt wonderful Diſpenſation) was compleated on the twenty ninth day of May laſt paſt, being the moſt memorable Birth-day, not onely of his Majeſty, both as a man and Prince, but likewiſe as an actual King, and of this and other His Majeſties Kingdoms, all in a great meaſure new born and raiſed from the dead on this moſt joyful day, wherein many thouſands of the Nobility, Gentry, Citizens, and other his Lieges of this Realm, conducted His Majeſty unto His Royal Cities of London and Weſtminſter, with all poſſible expreſſions of their publick Joy and Loyal Affections in far greater triumph than any of his moſt victorious Predeceſſors Kings of England, returned thither from their Forreign Conqueſts, and both His Majeſties Houſes of Parliament, with all Dutyful and Joyful Demonſtrations of their Allegiance publickly received, and cordially congratulated His Majeſties moſt happy Arrival, and Inveſtiture in His Royal Throne, at his Palace at Whitehall; Upon all which conſiderations, this being the day which the Lord himſelf hath made and crowned with ſo many publick Bleſſings and ſignal Deliverances, both of his Majeſty and his people, from all their late moſt deplorable Confuſions, Diviſions, Warres, Devaſtations, and Oppreſſions, to the end that it may be kept in perpetual Remembrance in all Ages to come; and that his Sacred Majeſty will with all his Subjects of this Realm, and the Dominions thereof, and their poſterities after them, might annually celebrate the perpetual memory thereof, by ſacrificing their unfeigned ſeigned hearty publick Thanks thereon to Almighty God, with one heart and voice, in a moſt devout and Chriſtian manner, for all theſe publick benefits received and conferred on them, upon this moſt joyful day. Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular Miniſters of Gods Word and Sacraments, in every Church, Chappel, and other uſual place of divine ſervice, and publick prayer, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be within this Realm of England, and the reſpective Dominions thereof, and their Succeſſors ſhall in all ſucceeding ages annually celebrate the twenty ninth day of May, by rendring their hearty publick Praiſes and Thankſgivings unto Almighty God, for all the forementioned Extraordinary Mercies, Bleſſings, and Deliverances received, and mighty Acts done thereon, and Declare the ſame to all the people there aſſembled, and the Generations yet to come, that ſo they may for ever praiſe the Lord for the ſame, whoſe Name alone is Excellent, and his Glory above the Earth and Heavens. And be it further enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons inhabiting within this Kingdom, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhall upon the ſaid day annually reſort with diligence and devotion to ſome uſual Church, Chappel, or Place where ſuch publick thankſgivings and praiſes to Gods moſt Divine Majeſty ſhall be rendred, and there orderly and devoutly abide during the ſaid publick Thankſgivings, Prayers, Preaching, Singing of Pſalmes, and other ſervice of God there to be uſed and miniſtred. And to the end that all perſons may be put in mind of their duty thereon, and be the better prepared to diſcharge the ſame with that piety and devotion as becomes them; Be it further enacted, That every Miniſter ſhall give notice to his Pariſhioners publickly in the Church at morning prayer the Lords day next before every ſuch twenty ninth day of May, for the due obſervation of the ſaid day, And ſhall then likewiſe publickly and diſtinctly read this preſent Act to the people. CAP. XXX.

The Attainder of ſeveral perſons guilty of the horrid Murther of his late Sacred Majeſty King Charles the firſt.

The horrid murder of King Charles the firſt how firſt contrived and plotted.

IN all humble manner ſhew unto Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, That the Horrid and Execrable Murther of Your Majeſties Royal Father, our late moſt Gracious Sovereign Charles the Firſt, of ever bleſſed and glorious memory, hath been committed by a party of wretched men, deſperately wicked, and hardened in their impiety, who having firſt plotted and contrived the ruine and deſtruction of this excellent Monarchy, and with it of the true Reformed Proteſtant Religion which had been ſo long protected by it and flouriſhed under it, found it neceſſary in order to the carrying on of their pernicious and traiterous deſigns, to throw down all the Bulwarks and Fences of Law, and to ſubvert the very being and conſtitution of Parliament, that ſo they might at laſt make their way open for any further attempts upon the Sacred Perſon of his Majeſty himſelf; And that for the more eaſie effecting thereof, they did firſt ſeduce ſome part of the then Army into a compliance, and then kept the reſt in ſubjection to them, partly for hopes of preferment, and chiefly for fear of loſing their imployments and arrears; until by theſe, and other more odious arts and devices, they had fully ſtrengthened themſelves, both in power and faction; which being done, they did declare againſt all manner of Treaties with the perſon of the King, even then while a Treaty by advice of both Houſes of Parliament was in being, Remonſtrate againſt the Houſes of Parliament for ſuch proceedings, ſeize upon his Royal perſon while the Commiſſioners were returned to the Houſe of Parliament with his Anſwer; and when his Conceſſions had been Voted a ground for peace, ſeize upon the Houſe of Commons, ſeclude and impriſon ſome Members, force out others, and there being left but a ſmall remnant of their own Creatures (not a tenth part of the whole) did ſeek to ſhelter themſelves by this weak pretence, under the name and authority of a Parliament, and in that name laboured to proſecute what was yet behind and unfiniſhed of their long intended Treaſon and Conſpiracy; To this purpoſe they prepared an Ordinance for erecting a prodigious and unheard of Tribunal, which they called An High Court of Juſtice, for Tryal of his Majeſty; and having eaſily procured it to paſs in their Houſe of Commons, as it then ſtood moulded, ventured to ſend it up from thence to the Peers then ſitting, who totally rejected it; whereupon their rage and fury increaſing, they preſume to paſs it alone, as an Act of the Commons, and in the name of the Commons of England; and having gained the pretence of Law, made by a power of their own making, purſue it with all poſſible force and cruelty, until at laſt, upon the thirtieth day of January, one thouſand ſix hundred forty and eight, His Sacred Majeſty was brought unto a Scaffold, and there publickly Murthered before the Gates of his own Royal Palace; And becauſe by this horrid action the Proteſtant Religion hath received the greateſt wound and reproach, and the people of England the moſt inſupportable ſhame and infamy that was poſſible for the enemies of God and the King to bring upon us, whilſt the Fanatick Rage of a few Miſcreants (who were as far from being true Proteſtants, as they were from being true Subjects) ſtands imputed by our Adverſaries to the whole Nation: We therefore your Majeſties ſaid dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, do hereby renounce, abominate, and proteſt againſt that Impious Fact, the execrable Murther, and moſt unparallel'd Treaſon committed againſt the Sacred perſon and life of our ſaid late Sovereign, Your Majeſties moſt Royal Father, and all proceedings tending thereunto: And do beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be declared, That by the undoubted and Fundamental Laws of this Kingdom, neither the Peers of this Realm, nor the Commons, nor both together in Parliament, nor the people collectively or repreſentatively, nor any other perſons whatſoever ever had, have, hath, or ought to have, any Coercive power over the perſons of the Kings of this Realm; And for the better vindication of our ſelves to poſterity, and as a laſting Monument of our otherwiſe inexpreſſible deteſtation and abhorrency of this villanous and abominable Fact, We do further beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, And be it hereby Enacted by the Kings Moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That every thirtieth day of January, unleſs it falls out to be upon the Lords day, and then the day next following, ſhall be for ever hereafter ſet apart to be kept and obſerved in all the Churches and Chappels of theſe Your Majeſties Kingdoms of England and Ireland, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the Iſles of Jerſey and Guernſey, and all other Your Majeſties Dominions, as an Anniverſary day of Faſting and Humiliation, to implore the Mercy of God, that neither the guilt of that Sacred and Innocent Blood, nor thoſe other ſins by which God was provoked to deliver up both us and our King into the hands of cruel and unreaſonable men, may at any time hereafter be viſited upon us or our poſterity. And whereas Oliver Cromwell deceaſed, Henry Ireton deceaſed, John Bradſhaw deceaſed, and Thomas Pride deceaſed, John Liſle, William Say, Sir Hardreſs Waller, Valentine Wauton, Thomas Harriſon, Edward Whalley, William Heveningham, Iſaac Penington, Henry Martin, John Barkſtead, Gilbert Millington, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, Robert Titchbourn, Owen Row, Robert Lilbourn, Adrian Scroop, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, John Carew, John Jones, Miles Corbet, Henry Smith, Gregory Clement, Thomas Wogan, Edmond Harvy, Thomas Scot, William Cawley, John Downs, Nicholas Love, Vincent Potter, Auguſtine Garland, John Dixwell, George Fleetwood, Simon Meyne, James Temple, Peter Temple, Daniel Blagrave, Thomas Wayte, John Cook, Andrew Broughton, Edward Dendy, William Hewlet, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, Daniel Axtel, are notoriouſly known to have been wicked and active inſtruments in the proſecution and compaſſing that Trayterous Murther of His late Majeſty, for which the ſaid Sir Hardreſs Waller, Thomas Harriſon, William Heveningham, Iſaac Penington, Henry Martin, Gilbert Millington, Robert Titchbourn, Owen Row, Robert Lilbourn, Adrian Scroop, John Carew, John Jones, Henry Smith, Gregory Clement, Edmond Harvy, Thomas Scot, John Downs, Vincent Potter, Auguſtine Garland, George Fleetwood, Simon Meyne, James Temple, Peter Temple, Thomas Wayte, John Cook, William Hewlet, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, and Daniel Axtel, have already received their Tryal at Law, and by Verdict, or their own Confeſſion, have been convicted, and by Judgement of Law thereupon had, do now ſtand duely and legally attainted; of whom, ten perſons, that is to ſay, Thomas Harriſon, Adrian Scroop, John Carew, John Jones, Thomas Scot, Gregory Clement, John Cook, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, and Daniel Axtel, have moſt deſervedly ſuffered the pains of death, and been executed according to Law; and the ſaid John Liſle, William Say, Valentine Wauton, Edward Whalley, John Barkſtead, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, Miles Corbet, William Cawley, Nicholas Love, John Dixwell, Daniel Blagrave, Andrew Broughton, and Edward Dendy, are fled from Juſtice, not daring to abide a Legal Tryal: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That the ſaid Oliver Cromwell deceaſed, Henry Ireton deceaſed, John Bradſhaw deceaſed, and Thomas Pride deceaſed, ſhall by vertue of this Act, be adjudged to be Convicted and Attainted of High Treaſon, to all intents and purpoſes, as if they, and every of them reſpectively, had been Attainted in their lives: And alſo that John Liſle, William Say, Valentine Wauton, Edward Whalley, John Barkſtead, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, William Cawley, Miles Corbet, Nicholas Love, John Dixwell, Daniel Blagrave, Andrew Broughton, Edward Dendy, and every of them, ſtand and be adjudged, and by Authority of this preſent Act Convicted and Attainted of High Treaſon; And that all and every the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Reverſions, Remainders, Poſſeſſions, Rights, Conditions, Intereſts, Offices, Fees, Annuities, and all other the Hereditaments, Leaſes for years, Chattels real, and other things of that nature, whatſoever they be, of them the ſaid Oliver Cromwell, Henry Ireton, John Bradſhaw, Thomas Pride, John Liſle, William Say, Valentine Wauton, Edward Whally, John Barkſtead, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, Anno Regni Caroli II. Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ, DECIMO TERTIO.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the Eighth day of May, An. Dom. 1661. In the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Our moſt Gracious Soveraign Lord CHARLES the Second, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And there continued until Tueſday the 30th. of July, 1661. and from that day the ſaid Parliament was adjourned unto the 20th. of November then next following; To the high pleaſure of Almighty God, and to the Weal publick of this Realm, were Enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

For His Majeſties Perſon and Government, againſt Treaſonable and Seditious practices.

The Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament deeply weighing and conſidering the miſeries and calamities of well nigh twenty years, before your Majeſties happy return, and withall, reflecting upon the cauſes and occaſions of ſo great and deplorable confuſions, do in all humility and thankfulneſs acknowledge Your Majeſties incomparable Grace and Goodneſs to Your People, in your Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, by which Your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to deliver Your Subjects, not only from the puniſhment, but alſo from the reproach of their former miſcarriages, which unexampled Piety and Clemency of Your Majeſty hath enflamed the hearts of us Your Subjects with an ardent deſire to expreſs all poſſible zeal and duty in the care and preſervation of Your Majeſties Perſon (in whoſe Honour and Happineſs conſiſts the good and welfare of Your People) and in preventing (as much as may be) all Treaſonable and Seditious Practices and Attempts for the time to come. And becauſe the growth and encreaſe of the late troubles and diſorders, did in a very great meaſure proceed from a multitude of Seditious Sermons, Pamphlets and Speeches, daily Preached, Printed and Publiſhed, with a tranſcendent boldneſs defaming the Perſon and Government of Your Majeſty and Your Royal Father, wherein men were too much encouraged, and (above all) from a wilfull miſtake of the Supream and lawfull Authority, whilſt men were forward to cry up and maintain thoſe Orders and Ordinances, oaths and Covenants, to be Acts Legal and warrantable, which in themſelves had not the leaſt colour of Law or Juſtice to ſupport them; from which kind of diſtempers, as the preſent age is not yet wholly freed, ſo poſterity may be apt to relapſe into them, if a timely remedy be not provided. We therefore, the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, having duely conſidered the premiſſes, and remembring that in the Thirteenth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth of ever bleſſed memory, a right good and profitable Law was made for preſervation of Her Majeſties Perſon, Do moſt humbly beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be Enacted; and be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever, after the four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, during the natural life of our moſt Gracious Soveraign Lord the King, (whom Almighty God preſerve and bleſs with a long and proſperous reign) ſhall within the Realm, or without, compaſs, imagine, invent, deviſe, or intend death or deſtruction, or any bodily harm tending to death or deſtruction, maim, or wounding, impriſonment, or reſtraint of the perſon of the ſame our Soveraign Lord the King, or to deprive or depoſe him from the ſtile, honour, or Kingly name of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, or of any other his Majeſties Dominions or Countries, or to levy war againſt his Majeſty within this Realm, or without; or to move, or ſtir any Foreiner or Strangers with force to invade this Realm, or any other His Majeſties Dominions or Countries being under His Majeſties Obeyſance: And ſuch compaſſings, Imaginations, Inventions, Devices, or intentions, or any of them, ſhall expreſs, utter, or declare, by any Printing, Writing, Preaching, or Malicious and adviſed ſpeaking, being legally convicted thereof upon the Oaths of two lawfull and credible witneſſes, upon tryal, or otherwiſe convicted or attainted by due courſe of Law, then every ſuch perſon and Perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall be deemed, declared, and adjudged to be Offences (during his Majeſties life) which diſable perſons to bear any office.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons at any time after the four and Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, during His Majeſties life, ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly publiſh or affirm the King to be an Heretick or a Papiſt, or that he endeavours to introduce Popery; or ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly, by writing, printing, preaching or other ſpeaking, expreſs, publiſh, utter, or declare any words, ſentences, or other thing or things, to incite or ſtir up the people to hatred or diſlike of the perſon of His Majeſty, or the eſtabliſhed Government, then every ſuch perſon and perſons, being thereof Legally convicted, ſhall be diſabled to have or enjoy, and is hereby diſabled and made incapable of having, holding, enjoying, or exerciſing any place, office, or promotion Eccleſiaſtical, Civil or Military, or any other imployment in Church or State, other then that of his Peerage, and ſhall likewiſe be lyable to ſuch further and other puniſhments as by the Common Laws or Statutes of this Realm may be inflicted in ſuch caſes. And to the end that no man hereafter may be miſled into any ſeditious or unquiet demeanour, out of an opinion that the Parliament begun and held at Weſtminſter, upon the third day of November, in the year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and forty, is yet in being, which is undoubtedly diſſolved and determined, and ſo is hereby declared and adjudged to be fully diſſolved and determined; or out of an opinion that there lies any obligation upon him from any Oath, Covenant or Engagement whatſoever, to endeavour a change of Government, either in Church or State; or out of an Opinion, that both Houſes of Parliament, or either of them, have a Legiſlative Power without the King; All which Aſſertions have been ſeditiouſly maintained in ſome Pamphlets lately Printed, and are daily promoted by the active enemies of our Peace and Happineſs:

Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, at any time after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, ſhall malitiouſly and adviſedly, by writing, printing Preaching, or other ſpeaking, expreſs, publiſh', utter, declare or affirm, That the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter upon the Third day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and Forty, is not yet diſſolved, or is not determined, or that it ought to be in being, or hath yet any continuance or exiſtence, or that there lies any Obligation upon him, or any other perſon, from any Oath, Covenant or Engagement whatſoever, to endeavour a change of Government, either in Church or State, or that both Houſes of Parliament, or either Houſe of Parliament, have, or hath a Legiſlative Power without the King, or any other words to the ſame effect; That then every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall incur the danger and penalty of a Premunire mentioned in a Statute made in the Sixteenth year of the Reign of King Richard the Second. And it is hereby alſo declared, That the Oath uſually called the Solemn League and Covenant, was in it ſelf an unlawfull Oath, and impoſed upon the Subjects of this Realm againſt the Fundamental Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom, and that all Orders and Ordinances, or pretended Orders and Ordinances, of both or either Houſes of Parliament, for impoſing of Oaths, Covenants or Engagements, Leavying of Taxes, or Raiſing of Forces and Arms, to which the Royal aſſent, either in Perſon or by Commiſſion, was not expreſly had or given, were in their firſt creation and making, and ſtill are, and ſo ſhall be taken to be, null and void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever. Provided nevertheleſs, That all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who have been, or ſhall at any time hereafter be queſtioned for any thing acted or done by colour of any the orders or Ordinances herein before mentioned and declared to be null and void, and are Indempnified by an Act entituled An Act of free and General pardon Indempnity and Oblivion, made in the Twelfth year of His Majeſties Reign that now is, or ſhall be Indemnified by any Act of Parliament, ſhall and may make ſuch uſe of the ſaid Orders and Ordinances for their Indempnity according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Act, and no other, as he or they might have done if this Act had not been made, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Militia declared to be in the King; and for the preſent Ordering and Diſpoſing the ſame.

The command of the Militia by ſea and land, the undoubted right of his Majeſty.

FOraſmuch as within all His Majeſties Realms and Dominions, the ſole Supream Government, Command, and Diſpoſition of the Militia, and of all Forces by Sea and Land, and of all Forts and Places of ſtrength, is, and by the Laws of England ever was the undoubted Right of His Majeſty, and his Royal Predeceſſors, Kings and Queens of England; and that both, or either of the Houſes of Parliament cannot, nor ought to pretend to the ſame; nor can, nor lawfully may raiſe, or levy any War Offenſive or Defenſive againſt His Majeſty, His Heirs or lawfull Succeſſors; and yet the contrary thereof hath of late years been practiſed almoſt to the ruine and Deſtruction of this Kingdom; and during the late Uſurped Governments, many evill and Rebellious Principles have been diſtilled into the minds of the People of this Kingdom, which unleſs prevented, may break forth to the diſturbance of the Peace and Quiet thereof.

An act under conſideration touching the Militia.

And whereas an Act is under conſideration for exerciſing the Militia, with moſt ſafety and eaſe to the King and His People, which Act cannot as yet be perfect; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, That the Militia and Land-forces of this Kingdom, and of the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, now under the Power of Lieutenants or their Deputies, ſhall be exerciſed, ordered, and managed untill the Five and twentieth day of March next enſuing, in ſuch manner as the ſame now is actually exerciſed, ordered, and managed, according to ſuch Commiſſions and Inſtructions as they formerly have, or from time to time ſhall receive from his Majeſty.

And whereas ſince the Twenty fourth of June One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, there have been Inſurrections, by occaſion whereof divers of His Majeſties good Subjects have been murthered; and for the ſecuring the Peace of the Nation, and preventing further diſorders, divers Perſons ſuſpected to be Fanaticks, Sectaries, or Diſturbers of the Peace, have been Aſſaulted, Arreſted, Detained or Impriſoned, and divers Arms have been ſeiſed, and Houſes ſearched for Arms, or ſuſpected Perſons; Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, who have or ſhall have acted, or done any thing in execution of any Commiſſion or Commiſſions of Lieutenancy, iſſued by the Kings Majeſty that now is, or by colour of them, or any of them, touching or concerning the ſame, or any of them, or relating thereunto, ſhall be and are hereby ſaved harmleſs and indempnified in this behalf: And alſo all Magiſtrates, Juſtices of the Peace, Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice, and all Perſons that have or ſhall have acted by or under them, or by their or any of their Commands, ſince the ſaid Twenty fourth day of June One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, untill the twentieth day of July One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, as to any aſſaulting, arreſting, detaining, or impriſoning any Perſon ſuſpected to be Fanatick, Sectary, or Diſturber of the Peace, or ſeiſing of Arms, or ſearching of Houſes for Arms, or for ſuſpected Perſons, ſhall be, and are hereby ſaved harmleſs, and indempnified in that behalf.

Provided, That neither this Act, nor any matter or thing therein contained, ſhall be deemed, conſtrued, or taken to extend to the giving or declaring of any Power for the tranſporting of any the Subjects of this Realm, or any way compelling them to march out of this Kingdom, otherwiſe then by the Laws of England ought to be done.

No perſon may be Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenant that hath not taken the Oaths of Allegiance and ſupremacy.

Provided, That no Perſon whatſoever ſhall be capable of acting as Lieutenant, or Deputy-Lieutenant, or other Officer or Soldier, by Vertue of this Act, who hath not already taken the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, ſince the return of His Majeſty into England, untill he ſhall take the ſame according to the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom: Which Oaths the Lords of His Privy Council, or any ſix of them, are hereby impowred to adminiſter to any Peer of this Realm, who ſhall be Commiſſionated by Vertue of this Act; and the Deputy-Lieutenants, or any two of them, in their reſpective Counties, to any Commoner.
